

International Shipping Consultant – World Options

“We are just coming to the end of a contract with Inspired B2B having worked with them for a number of months. The team are a very friendly, approachable group of people who actively helped set up and lead a successful telemarketing campaign for us, they have brought in a number of new clients and we look forward to working with them again in the future.”